- 25X1 5. [] In response to a request, advised 25X1 Mr. Layman, in the office of Senator Claiborne Pell (D., R.I.), that the net square footage of the CIA Headquarters building in Langley is [] square feet. Mr. Layman was also interested in the number of square feet of office space and the present total of Agency employees. Advised that these items were classified information. He indicated he intended to check the Agency's Senate Subcommittees for such information as they might provide on these matters.
- 25X1 6. [] The DCI met with Senator Richard Russell.
At this meeting arrangements were made for a briefing of the combined Subcommittees of Senate Armed Services and Senate Appropriations for two o'clock on Thursday, 8 February 1961 in the Senate Armed Services Committee room, 212 Old Senate Office Building.
- 25X1 7. [] The Director talked with Representative Clarence Cannon who requested that the Agency come up to present the budget to the CIA Subcommittee of House Appropriations Committee on Saturday, 10 February at ten o'clock. ✓
- 25X1 8. [] Talked with Roy Bullock, House Foreign Affairs Committee staff, who said he had been requested by the Chairman, Dr. Morgan, to determine if the Director could brief the House Foreign Affairs Committee next Wednesday at 10:30 a.m. I inquired as to other possible days and he indicated probably either Tuesday or Thursday would be satisfactory. I said I would advise.
- 25X1 9. [] Senator Clinton P. Anderson attempted to reach Mr. McCone and I then talked with the Senator.
He stated there were two men in his office - Fred Stanley of New Mexico and Stanley Dashew of Los Angeles - who represent the Dashew Machines Company. They are in the business of devices and cards to identify people. For example, they print the cards for the Diners Club and the American Express credit card. They have a new method of
